

Philippians: Finding Joy Right Where You Are!

Key Scriptures

Phil 2:19-30 <sup>19</sup> But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your state.

<sup>20</sup> For I have no one like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state. <sup>21</sup> For all seek their own, not the things which are of Christ Jesus. <sup>22</sup> But you know his proven character, that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel.

<sup>23</sup> Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me.

<sup>24</sup> But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly. <sup>25</sup> Yet I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and fellow soldier, but your messenger and the one who ministered to my need; <sup>26</sup> since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.

<sup>27</sup> For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup> Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. <sup>29</sup> Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem;

<sup>30</sup> because for the work of Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life, to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

Key Point

Timothy and Epaphroditus are living examples of people who have the mind of Christ, considering others as more important than themselves.

TALK IT OVER

Start talking: Pick a conversation starter for your group.

- What do you enjoy most and least about serving others?
- Share about a time when God used your life to help someone in a significant way. How did it feel?

Start thinking. Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- How is verse 21 true today?
- How rare are these two men? Can you think of one person who resembles them?

Start sharing. Choose a question to create openness.

- Why do you think God sometimes passes over “talented and gifted” people to use people like Timothy or Epaphroditus?
- How do Timothy and Epaphroditus illustrate 2:3-4?
- Who are the people in your life who helped shape your self-image by their praise or lack of praise?
- Do you give praise easily, or do you find it hard to do? Where do you need to improve?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

- Ask God to make you more available to others, and flexible for His use in what He considers “sacred service.”

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week!

- Choose one way you will serve another person this week as an act of sacred service unto God.
