“Christianity is a statement which, if false, is of no importance, and, if true, of infinite importance.

The one thing it cannot be is moderately important.”

C.S. Lewis

But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”

—he said to the paralytic—“I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home.”

And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:18-20

“What do you say about him,
since he has opened your eyes?”

He said, “He is a prophet.”

“Do you also want to become his disciples?”

And they reviled him, saying, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.”

John 9:17,27

Summer Sessions

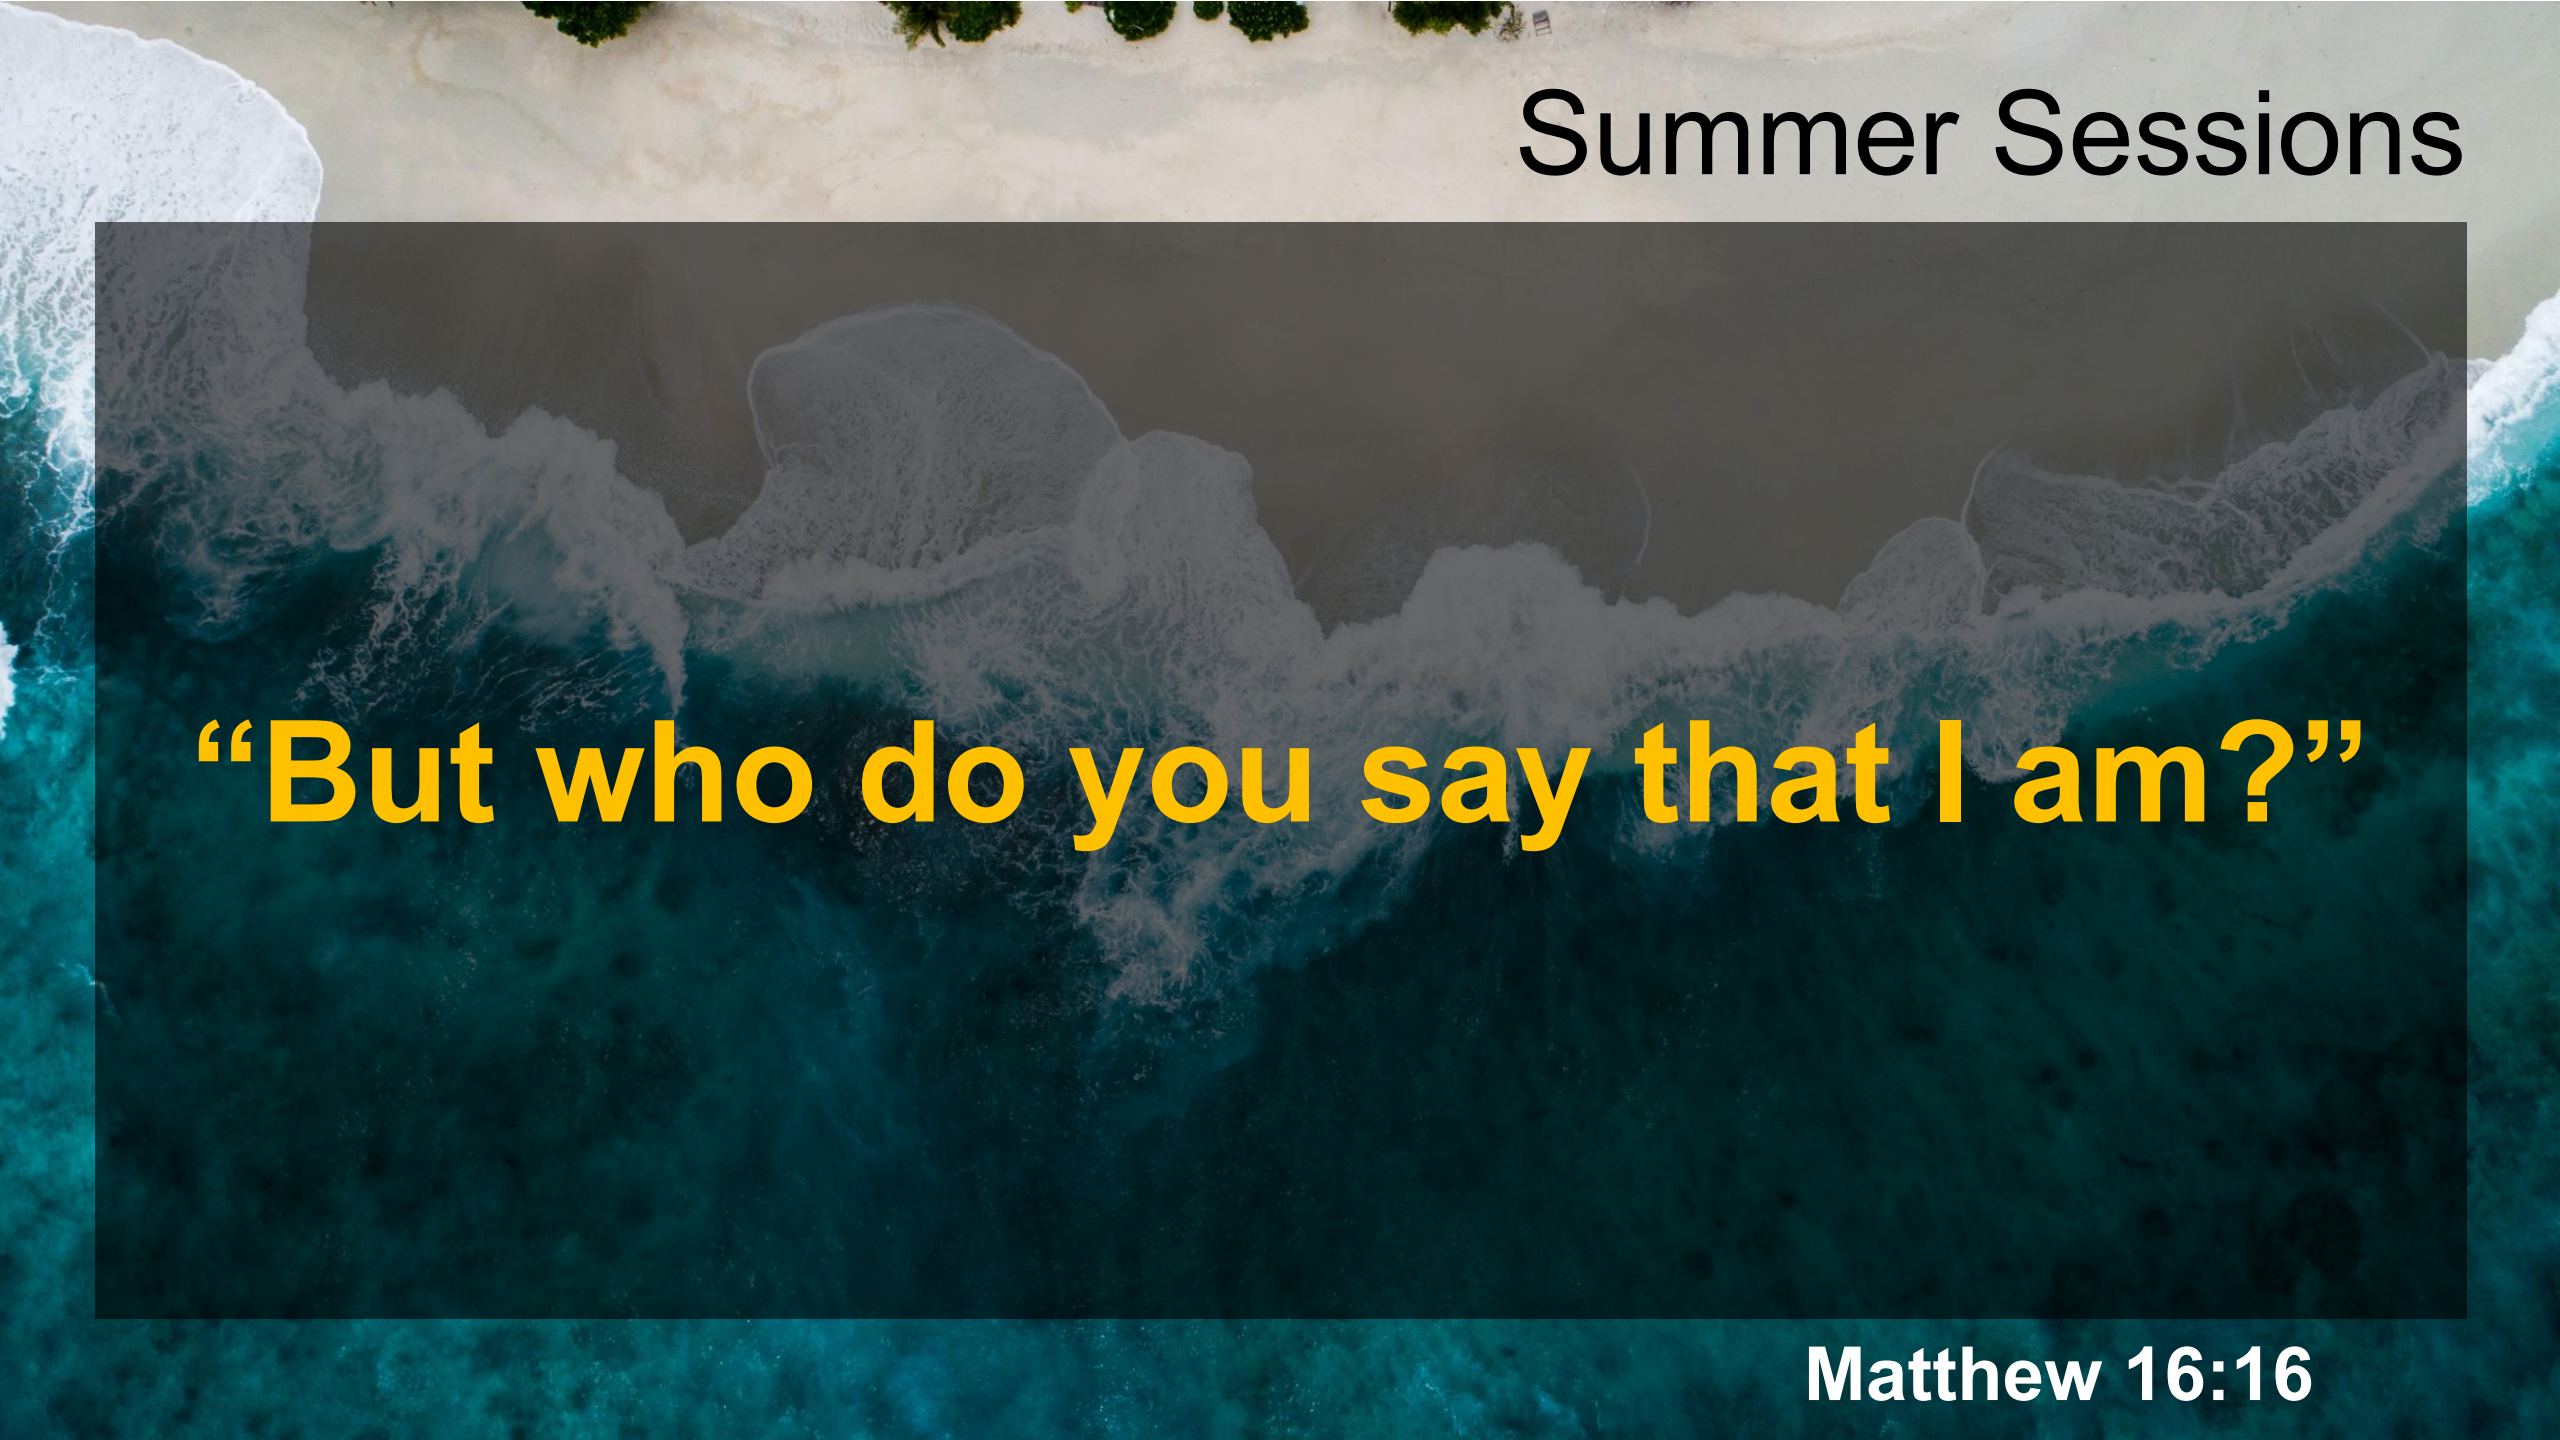

Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?” He answered, “And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and it is he who is speaking to you.” He said, “Lord, I believe,” and he worshiped him.

John 9:35-38

Summer Sessions

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
